MISS DALL AND MR. CONNOR MARRIED TODAY.

Today's Social Program of Home Hospitalities-Personal

A large gathering witnessed the marriage at noon today at All Souls' Church of Miss Marion Dall and Mr. Charles Connor. The ushers, who were kept busy seating the fashionable assemblage until the bride and her attendants arrived, were Mr. Marcus H. Dall, Mr. Albert Clemons, Mr. William C. Hill, Mr. C. S. Smith, with Mr. Samuel T. Hubbard, jr., of Yonkers, N. Y., Mr. Frank Poo'e of Cleveland and Mr. Charles W. Dall of New York. The bride, who was escorted by her father, Dr. William Healey Dall, was preceded by Mrs. William C. Hill and Mrs. John P. Wilson of Chicago as matrons of honor, and Miss Catherine Ridge . M.ss May Taylor-Arms of this city, Miss Margery Brown, Miss Mary Aldrich, Miss Esther Whitney of New York and Miss Jessie Ring of Saginaw, Mich., as bridesmaids. At the head pew she was met by the bridegroom and his brother, Capt. Connor of the Engineer Corps, his best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the Senate, assisted by Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce of All Souls'. The bridal toilette was of rich white satin, profusely trimmed with point lace. Her tulle veil was crowned with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a shower effect of orcales. The matrons of honor wore beautiful dresses of yellow chiffon and the bridesmaids had touches of yellow on their white costumes. All the attendants carried red roses. The decoration of the chancel was in poinsetta blossoms, set in a wreath of green. An elegant reception followed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Dall, on 12th street, where the newly married couple received congratulations in a bower of green vines and white blossoms. Late this afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Connor left for a honeymoon jaunt abroad for six weeks, and upon their return will be at

Rossell-Clayton.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., January 15 .- Miss Florence Dashiell Clayton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Clayton and granddaughter of the Rev. John H. Dashiell, D. D., pastor emeritus of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was married this afternoon at 2 o'clock to Lieut, Joseph A. Rossell, United States Marine Corps, now attached to the Washington navy yard.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. Father Joseph Barron, C. S. S. R., assistant to the rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, this city. It was a quiet home affair, the only witnesses being the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few personal friends. The bride was at-tended by her cousin, Mrs. Irving Dashiell Ireland, who was matron of honor, and the best man was Mr. John Philip Hill of Bal-timore, the bride's cousin. Miss Anne Dashiell of Washington played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered. The bride, who is a very pretty brunette, wore a handsome gown of white point d'esprit over silk, with tulle veil and orange blossoms and carried bride roses. The groom wore his full dress uni-
